Try Your Best

It was the first day of school.

Try Your Best

CHAPTER 1

It was the first day of school. Steven and Kaci were in Mrs. Allison's class last year. They were happy to be back. They knew all the rules and were glad to see their friends again.

Gina was a new student in Mrs. Allison's class. She didn't know anyone, and she was scared. She was trying to get Steven and Kaci to notice her. She wanted them to be her friends.

She felt like a fish in a bowl. What if she made a mistake? She was afraid to answer any questions. What if she didn't know the right answers?

Try Your Best

CHAPTER 2

Mrs. Allison asked everyone in the class to come to group time. Gina was nervous, but she tried not to show it. All the students sat in chairs around a big table. Gina wondered what would happen next.

Mrs. Allison said, "The first thing we are going to do today is called a pep rally. Since Steven was in this class last year, he is going to help me."

Steven knew just what to do. He got up and went to stand in front of six giant posters. Mrs. Allison gave Steven a long pointed stick.

She said, "Steven will lead our pep rally today. First, he will read each poster, and then, we will all read it out loud together."

Steven read the first poster. He said, "I like myself, and I'm great!"

Try Your Best

Mrs. Allison said, "Now, everyone say the same thing all together."

All the students repeated the sentence. "I like myself, and I'm great," they mumbled.

"Oh, no!" said Mrs. Allison, "I need you to say it very loud! Yell it out, and bang your hands on the table like drums in a real pep rally."

Gina was surprised! Her new teacher wanted her to yell in class! Could this get any better?

All the students yelled and banged their hands on the table, "I like myself, and I'm great!"

It was so loud! Gina thought the roof was going to pop off.

The students listened to Steven. He read each poster, and everyone yelled them back at him.
